The New England Nursing Informatics Consortium (NENIC) and Boston Children's Hospital are proud to jointly offer this exciting educational opportunity. This one-day symposium will address the theme of Nurses Transforming Healthcare Through Innovation. A special focus this year will be moving beyond EHR implementation towards optimization and data analytics.

There will be time for you to interact with the national and local presenters and network with your colleagues to share insights and experiences throughout the day. In addition, dedicated time will be set aside for membership poster presentations and exhibitors. Our featured speakers this year include:

Ann O’Brien MSN, RN
HIMSS 2018 Awardee: Most Influential Women in Health IT
Robert Wood Johnson 2011 Executive Nurse fellow
Former, National Senior Director of Clinical Informatics Kaiser Permanente

Dan Roberts PhD, RN, ACNP
